Infinite Scholars alone is the reason I received a college experience that prepared me for a life in leadership. As a senior in high school I made the decision to attend an HBCU. I desired to be in a higher education setting with peers who shared a similar racial experience as mine. That choice came with a glaring realization that I had insufficient knowledge about my choices of colleges who fit this category. Infinite Scholars helped me navigate my college search and ultimately helped me receive a full scholarship to my school of choice.

I attended Alabama A&M University where I majored and graduated with a degree in Business Management. While at AAMU I was elected as the Student Government President, a member of the board of Trustees, and participated in numerous business and civic conferences allowing me to travel the country and build an enormous network. I am currently a Missouri State Representative and can definitively say that AAMU prepared me for a life in leadership. None of that would have ever been possible if it wasn't for Infinite Scholars.
